Profile

I am a Chartered Accountant, based in Delhi-NCR, with more than 16 years of post-qualification experience in accounting and taxation. My areas of expertise are direct taxation, international taxation, and accounts and auditing. Over the last 16 years, I have worked with different organizations like CA firms, NBFCs and global audit firm KPMG in their GDS division as a team lead in their audit division and as a process designer. I have also worked for many large PSU banks for different audit assignments.

I am also associated with various educational institutions like ICAI and ICMAI for various research / writing assignments.

I am also associated with various educational institutions like ICAI and ICMAI for various research/ writing assignments.

Having a keen interest in taxation and a flair for writing on the subject, I have written several articles, few of which are published in reputed tax journals and website like taxpublishers.com

My association with DVS started since Feb 2021, as a research consultant and now I am leading the Research Team as Research Head where my role involves planning, and execution of the robust research practice throughout various verticals of DVS and provide most updated research material/ solutions to them for best services to their clients. I also work on various publications of the research foundation on the topics of domestic and international taxation.

I am responsible for providing background material for webinars as well as taking webinars on relevant topics myself. At the research vertical, we have started a new initiative of quarterly newsletters on various subjects.
